JFK SUBMITS HEALTH INSURANCE PLANS

Confabs Begun On Hiking U.S., Soviet Relations

Conflicts In Laos,
Congo Main Issue
In Consultations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, home from Moscow, begins a round of conferences with Kennedy administration leaders today on possible ways of improving relations between the United States and the Soviet Union.

President Kennedy expects to confer personally with Thompson, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other advisers several times before the ambassador returns to his post, possibly carrying new instructions for further talks between him and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

Laos, Congo Key Issues

The cold war conflicts over Laos and the Congo are key issues in the consultations now starting here. They apparently take precedence in administration thinking over the possibility of an early meeting between Kennedy and Khrushchev. However, that possibility and Thompson's first hand report on Khrushchev's interest in such a meeting were certain to be discussed.

Kennedy spent more than two hours Wednesday in a White House meeting with Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and other top advisers. The subject was the crisis in Laos. Any decisions on new moves are expected to be talked over with other interested governments before any action is taken.

Creation of Committee

The administration plan is understood to call for creation of a completely neutral international watchdog committee which would have the task of trying to promote an end to the civil conflict in the Southeast Asian kingdom, neutralize it and stop the flow of arms from the outside, particularly from the Communist bloc.

At the same time it is understood that Kennedy and Rusk are deeply worried about a byproduct of the Laotian crisis—the dissatisfaction of Asian members of the

Hunger, Disease Undermine Morale Of Red Chinese

HONG KONG (AP) — Refugees arriving from Communist China say the twin specters of disease and sabotage stalk the land.

Hunger, malnutrition and famine in some areas have undermined the people's health and morale, they say, and passive but crippling sabotage is setting in.

Responsible Western experts here still see no sign of a mass uprising or revolution in the making. They say the Chinese Communists have taken drastic measures to stave off disaster.

Apparently trying to give their underfed, overworked people a breather, the Peiping regime has abandoned in all but name the "great leap forward" campaign on which it had pinned its hopes of overtaking the West in industrial and agricultural production.

Peiping also has started paying out large sums of precious foreign exchange—estimated at up to $200 million worth—to Australia and Canada for food for its hungry millions.

Refugees, streaming out of China in increasing numbers, paint a harrowing picture. The picture probably is colored by emotion, but the stories they tell are being repeated too often these days to be disregarded.

The people of China are desperate, they say. Food has always been short under communism but never this short. And rations are being cut lower and lower.

Some state granaries have been reported raided, others set afire.

London Spy Hearing Continues

Witness Says Soviet Agents Stole Sub Data

LONDON (AP) — A witness testified today details of Britain's first nuclear submarine were among Royal Navy secrets stolen by five persons accused of spying for the Soviet Union.

The witness was Capt. George Symonds, director of the underwater weapons section of a naval research station at Portland. Symonds was shown photographs alleged by detectives to have been found in the possession of Gordon Lonsdale, one of the defendants, when he was arrested Jan. 7.

The officer said the photographs were of pages of a secret book giving particulars—many of them highly secret—of British war vessels, including the nuclear sub, Dreadnought.

The Dreadnought is powered with an atomic reactor based on U.S. Navy designs.

The five defendants watched while a security agent showed some of the spy gadgets they allegedly used in their work.

The agent, identified only as "Mr. L," demonstrated photographic apparatus he said was suitable for making microdots, a favorite Soviet method of transmitting information secretly. Each microdot is a tiny bit of film no larger than a printed period. But when properly magnified it blossoms out into a photograph of an entire page of typewriting or of a book.

"Mr. L" told a magistrate he found the microdot apparatus at the homes of three of the defendants—Lonsdale, 37, Peter Kroger, 30, and Kroger's wife Helen, 47. The other defendants are Harry

3 Mahoning Solons Introduce Bills

COLUMBUS — Three Mahoning County legislators introduced three measures in the General Assembly Wednesday afternoon.

Rep. Thomas Gilmartin, D-Youngstown, was the author of two. One would specify that the state cigarette tax is a consumer tax. Its effect would be to permit smokers in Ohio to deduct the tax from their federal income taxes.

The other is a constitutional amendment which, if approved by the legislature and the voters, would allow members of the General Assembly to serve as members of state professional licensing and examining boards.

Sens. Charles J. Carney and Stephen R. Olenick, Youngstown Democrats, jointly sponsored a bill to allow boards of election to initiate recounts when election results are close.

At present, recounts are permissible only when requested and paid for by candidates.

The bill is supported by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, who made such a proposal after the last election.

Social Security Tax Increase Proposed To Offset Expense

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today urged Congress to approve a controversial health insurance program for 14.2 million Americans 65 or older. It would be financed by an increase in Social Security taxes.

In a special message to Congress dealing with the "harsh consequences" and sometimes crushing cost of ill health, Kennedy also recommended more federal spending to provide separately for:

An increase in community health services and facilities such as nursing homes, nursing aid and expansion of hospital research and development; training of more doctors and dentists through federal scholarships; a

Go To Hospital More Often, Stay Longer

"Those among us who are over 65—16 million today in the United States—go to the hospital more often and stay longer than their younger neighbors," he added. "Their physical activity is limited by six times as much disability as the rest of the population. Their annual medical bill is twice that of persons under 65—but their annual income is only half as high."

The health insurance program Kennedy proposed for the aged—similar in principle to the one he tried unsuccessfully to put through Congress last year as a member of the Senate—would apply to 13.7 million over 65 who are under the Social Security program, and to about 500,000 under the Railroad

Appropriations Estimated at $177 Million

For the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1962, appropriations are figured at about $177 million and actual spending at about $55 million.

Some of the programs Kennedy advocated are on a 10-year basis, and the administration estimates the cost would continue to mount through the first four years, and then perhaps level off.

Kennedy did not go into any detail regarding price tags in his message. He has promised, however, that he will suggest ways of raising additional revenue in the case of all new spending programs—which of and by themselves—would knock out of balance the budget he inherited from the Eisenhower regime for the fiscal year commencing July 1.

Payment of Benefits Would Start July 1, 1962

Payment of health insurance benefits would start July 1, 1962. So it also means that in the case of workers earning at least $5,000 their tax increase for 1962 would be $6. In 1963 the increase would be $8. The hike would be smaller in 1962 because for that year the tax would continue at 3 per cent, the present rate, but would be on the first $5,000 of wages. The next year the tax rate would jump to 3 1/4 per cent.

The additional Social Security cost would be less in the case of workers earning less than $5,000 a year.

Under the Kennedy program the insured aged would be eligible for hospital care at $20 for hospital out-patients, those

Administrative Center Planned

School Board Eyes Post Office Building

What will become of the Salem Post Office building when the time comes for it to be abandoned?

It may become an administrative center for the Salem public school system.

Supt. of Schools Paul E. Smith and Assistant Superintendent D. M. Padely said today the board of education is interested in securing the building after the new Post Office building is constructed at the corner of Penn Ave. and Columbia St.

The Post Office Department and Congressman Wayne L. Hays announced Wednesday approval of plans for a new postal facility here.

House Chairmen Push Drive

Curb Sought on Federal Back-Door Spending

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairmen of two powerful House committees have teamed up in a drive to curb federal back-door spending estimated to run into billions of dollars annually.

Back-door spending is the congressional term applied to Treasury withdrawals under authority of laws which do not make direct appropriations. Instead, they permit expenditures through contract authorizations, public debt transactions and other means. It is used largely in connection with housing, highway and subsidy programs.

In the second session of the 85th Congress last year, back-door spending obligated $4,164,000,000 of federal funds for which no direct appropriations were made.

Heading the movement to curb the practice are Reps. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., chairman of the Rules Committee, and Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., chairman of the Appropriations Committee. Each has introduced a resolution designed to cope with the practice, and more than 100 House members have signed a request for action.

Smith's plan would permit objection of a single congressman to block House consideration of any bill carrying appropriations or authorizing future money withdrawals from the Treasury unless the bill originated in the Appropriations Committee.

Cannon's proposal would automatically send to the Ways and Means Committee any measure providing authority for new programs, or increasing the scope of existing programs, which involve a charge against the Treasury.

The Ways and Means Committee would be required to report to the House within 30 days an estimate of the cost involved. The legislation then could be passed only by a majority of the House—219—on a roll-call vote.

Dr. F. S. Howlett, also of the experiment station, said the principal advantage of most of the strains of standard apple varieties is more color. Many nurseries are making false claims in new varieties, he said. He also discussed apple production when grown on standard rootstock as compared to semi-dwarf rootstock and more hardy rootstocks. Considerable work on this is being done at the Mahoning County Experiment Farm at Canfield, he declared.

Henry Ross, manager of the Salem Fruit Growers Cooperative Association, reported the volume of apples packed to date by the association.

Dixie States Are Struck by Record Snowfall

Hundreds of Schools
Closed; Traffic
Hopelessly Snarled

By The Associated Press

Southern states along the Mason-Dixon line have been hit by a record snowfall that paralyzed traffic and kept hundreds of schools closed.

Heaviest blows were struck Wednesday at northern Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia. Two deaths were attributed to the storm, both resulting from highway accidents in Virginia.

To Pierce Icy Curtain

Rising temperatures and clearing skies are in prospect today. They are expected to pierce winter's icy curtain across the South, but highway crews faced the enormous task of freeing the choked roads.

Hope of opening any but the primary routes was abandoned. Wednesday night only emergency traffic was allowed on main routes in northern Virginia. Trucks and cars were stranded throughout the mountainous belt of the state.

Depths up to 18 inches fell across a stretch up the Shenandoah Valley and into northern Virginia, adding a fresh layer to last week's storm. Combined depths in some places measured 29 inches, and winds pushed drifts of four and five feet across roads.

Had Heaviest Snowfall

Western Maryland had its heaviest snowfall of the season. Cumberland, a city of 45,000 had 60 inches of snow since Dec. 11.

The official weather observer there, Robert R. Golden, said it was "the worst winter I remember."

A state of emergency was declared at Hagerstown, Md., where 15 inches fell and the roofs on two industrial storage buildings collapsed.

Guardsmen Called Out

West Virginia National Guardsmen were called out to help dig the Preston County town of Terra Alta out of the snow. Another 12 inches of snow brought the accumulation to two feet along the West Virginia-Maryland-Pennsylvania border.

North Carolina escaped the brunt of the storm except across the Northern Piedmont.

New Government In Congo Replaces Commissioner Rule

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — President Joseph Kasavubu today appointed a new government for the Congo, replacing the regime of commissioners established by Gen. Joseph Mobutu's military coup four months ago.

Mobutu himself was out of the capital during the frantic political maneuvering that preceded the announcement, but there was every indication the new regime will have the army's support.

The prime minister in the new provisional government is Joseph Ileo. Kasavubu's original choice for the post when he fired Patrice Lumumba and set off the internal political split that has brought the Congo to the brink of civil war.

Kasavubu said the government will stay in office until a parliament representing the whole country can be called. He set no time for this parliament to meet.

The government change apparently resulted from the flurry of talks attendant on the U. N. Security Council's current Congo debate and from the Kennedy administration's seeming willingness to consider a formula for the Congo that would include Lumumba's release from prison.

Ohio Legislators Introduce Bills To Aid Small Businesses

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's small businessmen have received assurances that they do have friends in the legislature.

Sen. C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, the Senate majority leader, wants the state to adopt a "buy-American" policy on all its purchases.

And Rep. Thomas D. Gindlesberger, R-Holmes, has chimed in with a bill to "equalize," as he puts it, the competition between chain stores and small business men by requiring a sizable license fee for each store issuing trading stamps.

It was Mechem's proposal that all state officials and institutions buy only goods and materials manufactured or assembled in the United States. He said he wants to prevent loss of jobs because of foreign competition.

Gindlesberger's license - fee bill aimed at dispensers of trading stamps would go as high as $8,000 per store. He termed it a middle-of-the-road proposal which would stop short of the goal of a bill scheduled for introduction next week to abolish the trading stamp system entirely.

Mechem's statement in connection with his bill was blunt:

"Foreign competition is becoming more and more serious in Ohio. . . . It is wrong for the State of Ohio to take Ohio taxpayers' money to help finance the foreign competition which takes away their jobs. . . ."

Gindlesberger denied that his licensing proposal for stores giving trading stamps would set fees so high as to be punitive.

The Holmes County representative, however, said he has made a study of trading stamp operations for the last two years and he is convinced a tax on retailers who offer the stamps is the one real answer for the independent retailers who feel they cannot afford to offer stamps.

After brief sessions today, legislators were prepared to call an end to their sixth legislative week. At this stage of a legislative session, introduction of bills is the prime order of business. Another half-hundred poured in Wednesday.

Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Hamilton, sponsored a joint resolution calling upon the Ohio legislature to ratify a proposed 23rd amendment to the U.S. Constitution which would provide the District of Columbia representation in the Electoral College.

Senate Minority Leader Frank W. King, D-Lucas, offered the ratification amendment a couple of weeks ago in the Ohio Senate, but Taft's action today, on the part of the legislative majority, appeared to foreshadow Ohio's ratification of the proposed amendment.

Presiding officers of both houses signed an emergency measure to correct a defect in existing law which would have prevented combined probate-juvenile judges from collecting the pay raises approved by the legislature four years ago.

New bills introduced would: Require licenses costing $200 to $8,000 a year, on the basis of gross sales, for retailers issuing trading stamps.

Appropriate $4 million to reimburse local school districts for bus purchases made before July 1, 1957.

Create a state board to regulate professional solicitations for charity.

Ban mass telephone solicitations.

Appropriate $2 million for new buildings at Ohio University's Chillicothe branch.

Appropriate $375,000 for an interfaith chapel at Dayton State Hospital.

Require a three-year waiting period after application for railroads to abandon passenger train service.

Permit special automobile license plates for legislators.

Provide stiff penalties for criminal conspiracy as requested by the governor.

Allow election boards to make recounts of close elections results as urged by the administration.

Restore the 3 per cent face value redemption of sales tax stamps, cut to 2 per cent by the last legislature.

Require front seat safety belts in passenger cars sold after next Jan. 2.

Set a state minimum wage of $1.25 an hour.

Giant Soviet Sputnik Seen Over Scotland

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP)—The Soviet Union's giant new Sputnik passed over Edinburgh early today just as the Soviets said it would.

Scientists at the Edinburgh Royal Observatory spotted the seven-ton satellite after the Soviet government had sent them a telegram telling them when to watch for it. It was Moscow's first information in the Sputnik's course since the announcement Saturday that it was circling the earth.

A spokesman said the Sputnik was seen with the naked eye and had the appearance of a second magnitude star as it swung over the city shortly before dawn. But the overcast prevented the observatory photographing it, he added.

Moscow has given no progress report on the new satellite since announcing Saturday that it had been launched into orbit. No radio signals have been heard from it by Western scientists trying to track its course.

ART OBJECTS BURNED

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Ralph Traucht, owner of the Unionville Tavern, says $46,000 worth of art objects were lost in a blaze that wrecked a third-floor apartment in the 155-year-old structure Wednesday. Traucht said the items were part of a collection he valued at $100,000.

Destroyed were a 15th-century silk painting, oriental wood carvings and other items. The loss was not insured. Cause of the blaze at the historic tavern east of Madison was not determined.

New Post Office a Step Closer

On the basis of recent developments, Salem may have a new Post Office building by 1962.

As announced yesterday, the U. S. Post Office Department intends to exercise its options on five parcels of land at the corner of Columbia and Penn St. and seek bids for the private construction of a modern post office structure. The government would take a long-term lease on it.

Congressman Wayne L. Hays, who approved the move, did not do so before first thoroughly investigating the project. He thought it might be cheaper for the government to erect its own building and save taxpayers' dollars on long-term leases but against this reasoning he had to reckon with the dire need of more adequate postal facilities and 45-year-old Salem building which could not be expanded without eliminating what little loading space presently existed.

There was some fear of what would become of the old post office building; that the downtown structure might not be utilized to best advantage after it is sold. However, the Board of Education has indicated it is interested in acquiring it as an administrative building. The board's present offices are in the Junior High building.

The government has announced it will pick up the options on the new Post Office site within the next two days, paving the way for an early advertisement for construction bids.

The campaign for a new post office facility, begun by this newspaper, has had the support of the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce, the Salem Manufacturers Association, United Commercial Travelers and various other clubs and individuals. The Post Office Department and Congressman Hays have been most helpful.

Conflict-of-Interest Law

When he repeated his request to the General Assembly recently for a conflict-of-interest law for public officials, Gov. DiSalle reminded the legislators that his proposal to the 1959 session went "unnoticed, unwanted and unheard."

Since some parts of the measure would apply to the legislators, it might be assumed that their hesitancy constituted prima facie evidence of conflicts of interest among them. Without specific proof, however, the charge would be unfair. There is a good deal more to writing an effective conflict-of-interest law than merely lining up sufficient votes to put it on the statute books.

Conflicts of interest concern the realm of morals and ethics. While all law in organized, civilized society is based originally on proper moral behavior, it is no simple thing to decide, in black and white, what is good and what is bad.

The problem is to define a conflict of interest so precisely that it insures against evil acts harmful to a democratic society without causing side effects that might in turn prove disadvantageous for a democratic society.

THERE IS SOME fear among members of the General Assembly, for instance, that if the governor's recommendations were accepted no lawyer could serve in the legislative body. Certainly that would be a disadvantage and certainly that is not what the governor wants.

It likewise has been argued that teachers might be barred from the Assembly, because it could be construed as a conflict of interest for a teacher to sponsor or support additional funds for schools so teachers' salaries could be raised.

This may be splitting the hair pretty fine, but it illustrates the difficulty of setting down precise definitions of what is ethical and moral and what is not.

No one would argue that Gov. DiSalle does not have sound grounds for making his request. He has established a code of ethics for officers and employees under the jurisdiction of his office and believes elected officials have an even greater responsibility to serve the public interest without the slightest taint of motive or performance.

He recognizes the difficulty in writing a proper law that is both fair and enforceable. He said in his message:

"Government is and should be representative of all the people who elect it, and some conflict of interest is inherent in any representative form of government."

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY should give the governor's bill a thorough hearing with sincere intent of arriving at a just statute. That the subject is difficult to handle is not sufficient reason for ignoring it.

Perhaps the Legislature should be excused for its neglect of the proposal two years on the ground it had too many other pressing problems to deal with then.

That will not excuse it this year.

Gov. DiSalle is right when he says the need is urgent to put a conflict-of-interest statute on the books. His specific proposal may have flaws, but the Assembly cannot know that it does until it takes a good, long look at it.

If flaws are found, the Legislature has full authority to correct them.

When the moon comes over the mountain there are usually revenue agents somewhere nearby.

Personal Liability

City Council's contemplated action against motorists who abandon their cars on streets week after week, or month after month, is justified.

Although Council is after the flagrant violator, it will have to word its proposed ordinance in such a manner as to exclude the car owner who has neither garage or driveway.

Nevertheless, it would appear that motor vehicles parked on streets at any time during the night without lights constitute a real hazard and an assumed liability to the owners. The same liability would apply to residents who fail to keep their sidewalks free of ice and snow and someone is injured in a fall.

The Door Is Open

In the opinion of Ohio Attorney General Mark McElroy, there is nothing legally wrong in a school teacher serving as mayor of a city "providing it is physically possible for one person to discharge the duties of both positions."

The ruling was in answer to an inquiry from the city of VanWert, but probably several well-qualified Salem school teachers are looking somewhat belatedly at the recent campaign by the parties here to attract candidates for mayor, the Republicans particularly.

Once Over

If a government can be overthrown by Henrique Galvao it can be done by Gilbert and Sullivan, Alice in Wonderland, Don Quixote and the ghost of Errol Flynn. From Portugal it must have looked like a revolution by missing persons.

Proclamation of victory against Salazar from a cruise ship thousands of miles away should go down in history as one of the most curious documents ever delivered by land, sea, or air. Our first thought was that it had been written by Brendan Behan in collaboration with Bill Saroyan, Salvador Dali, Walt Disney and the authors of "Mutiny on the Bounty."

Premier Salazar may be a tyrant and Portuguese people may be having it rough, but revolution by nautical cruise, ship radio, souvenir postcard and Hollywood movie script won't change things fast.

No government has ever been overthrown by so few so far away with so many ocean zigzags. Skipper who seized Santa Maria was trying to overthrow a government by practical joke, laugh episodes, compass changes and a sudden decision to skip Miami on winter cruise and stage a seagoing game of hide-and-seek.

Winding up at Recife, Brazil, Galvao delivered "First revolutionary proclamation of the Portuguese National Independence Liberation Junta," which sounded as if he were just outside the palace door of the Portugal government, ready to move in.

He disregarded the fact he lacked sufficient crew, was short of fuel and could not guarantee where he had been, let alone where he was going.

"We are victoriously carrying out the first military action of forces under my command, the future army of liberty for Portugal and Spain," he declared while not sure where he could get his next cup of coffee.

"We proved Salazar is not invulnerable and beat him and his navy before entire Free World by ridicule," he added. This was like announcing unconditional surrender of a distant state from a life raft, using a paper cup for a megaphone.

What a weird world we are living in! Even a passenger on a tropical cruise isn't safe from involvement in a Moby Dick thriller directed by Olsen & Johnson.

CONNECTICUT JUDGE threw out case of eight pacifists who interfered with the U.S. sub launching at Groton. He said there was no proof they knew it was a restricted area. Ya mean huge signs plastered all over the sub base now and for years past are no identification of a restricted zone?

An electronic brain used to test intelligence of students in tests for college admission FLUNKED OUT! Used to pass on examination papers, it has been found to have been wrong in 1,000 cases. It even gave scores for students in tests they hadn't taken! It would seem the electric brain needs and IQ test.

The apparatus is used at Princeton, N.J., in examining college entrance tests. It is supposed to read and mark 100 sheets a minute. But it goofed. Parents and students are greatly disturbed and should demand that electronics brain be taken off the job until engineers remodel it so it will automatically put on a dunce cap when it makes a mistake. If a kid must get flunked let him get flunked in the old-fashioned way.

Kennedy's Utopian Proposals

By PETER EDSON

The programs which President Kennedy has so far mapped out for the country are almost Utopian. Everybody can have everything. Both ways.

America has the resources, he says, to meet the demands for national security. At the same time it can have advancing well-being at home.

This has the familiar ring of "We can have guns and butter both," as the saying was in World War II days. Some of the optimists were saying then that the country could win the war with business as usual and without sacrifice.

Kennedy has altered that concept by saying that he will ask for sacrifices where needed. But the assumption now seems to be that these sacrifices aren't going to be too many, too great, nor for too long a time.

THE COUNTRY CAN have full production, the President indicates, and still have "reasonable stability of the price level." But what's "reasonable" to him hasn't been defined.

In the eight Eisenhower years the consumers' price index advanced 12 percentage points—114 to 126—or 1.5 points a year on the average. This provides a basis for future comparisons with the Kennedy administration record.

The President wants to increase the 2.5 per cent average annual growth rate of the last seven years to at least 3.5 per cent. He thinks that personal income last year could have been raised 20 billion dollars and profits raised five billion—at the same time.

Some people hold to the old-fashioned idea that higher wages mean lower profits. But that isn't the way it's going to work in the new Utopia, where higher wages and profits will mean higher tax collections to rebalance the budget.

KENNEDY TALKS ABOUT balancing the budget "over the years of the economic cycle."

This means over a period of both boom and bust. It means budget surpluses for debt retirement in the years of prosperity, to offset the deficits in the years of depression.

The Eisenhower record was four years with total surpluses of six billion dollars, four years with total deficits of 22 billion. In other words, the national debt rose 16 billion—from 274 to 290 billion—another basis for comparison.

In these same eight years employment went up from 60 to 66 million, while unemployment rose from 1.6 million to 4.5 million, using the conservative estimates of the last Eisenhower economic report. These are other measures to keep in mind.

The programs which Kennedy has so far proposed to Congress for economic recovery and growth will not by themselves, he says, unbalance the last budget which Eisenhower submitted.

NO COST ESTIMATES for these Kennedy programs were included in the first special message which he sent to Congress. Elsewhere, it is indicated that the cost may be under five billion dollars over the next year and a half.

So the promise is to increase government expenses without unbalancing the budget—another Utopian idea. But the prospects for this are admittedly fading fast.

Some of the Kennedy proposals—like early payment of veterans' insurance dividends—do not call for an extra government outlay. Others, like increased social security benefits, will be paid for by later payroll deduction increases.

Minimum wage increases will be paid for by employers. Placing more defense contracts in depressed areas means that the underemployed areas won't have it so good. In other words, you don't get something for nothing, not even in Utopia.

BACK OF ALL THESE proposals, moreover, is the idea that prosperity can be restored just by increasing government and private spending. It is a theory that has never been proved, though it is now widely advocated by some of the new Utopian frontier economists.

Kennedy says many of the measures he proposes are temporary. The need for them will disappear as the economy recovers.

The faster the recovery and the more temporary the measure, the more Utopian will be the country, anyway.

SIDE GLANCES

"But, I COULDN'T have been as active when I was his age, Mother—I'm not as active even now!"

A Disturbing Thought

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Kennedy Has Scared American Business

With a depression under way, a president of the United States, in his inaugural speech, said: "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

Those words of FDR have a special meaning right now for there is one word that it is necessary for the President of the United States to convey to the American people today, and that's "confidence."

In some respects, President Kennedy has scared American business. He may not have intended his State of the Union message to stir up fears but cries about "national peril" and hints that maybe the American system of government may have to be changed before the Kennedy term has ended have had a depressing effect on business psychology.

It's a paradox that, while the Kennedy proposals have been restrained and cautious and not in themselves radical, apprehension has developed that any daysomething drastic may come. This needs to be replaced by convincing evidence to the contrary from the White House.

For one thing, of course, the many presidential advisers, with their task force recommendations, have added more uneasiness to an already uneasy mood. When these advisers start talking vaguely about uprooting the business system, tax rates and all, and when the impression is transmitted through the press that much of the country is a distressed area, the natural reaction by the buying public as well as the business planning public is to hesitate and wait and see what's coming.

It is argued that perhaps the Kennedy strategy was to speak of "national peril" in order to introduce an emergency psychology in Congress so as to get certain legislation passed. If true, this really was unnecessary for when unemployment steadily rises and reaches 5.4 million, there's already a sober realization that the country isn't experiencing a boom.

What is most unfortunate is the many sweeping statements being made in high places here about the business situation without taking into account the brighter side—the many parts of the economy that are functioning either normally or so close to normal that the talk of recession causes a fear that they may be the next to be hurt.

THE PRESIDENT'S message about strengthening our position internationally, especially on halting the outflow of gold, was sound. It's the domestic picture, indeed, which needs to be cleared up. Is the recession as bad as has been Painted? Are some of the signs of recovery that have already put in their appearance significant?

Will some of the new appropriations to be made by Congress take effect after the recovery has started and thus tend to bring on an artificial boom with all the restraints on the money market that usually are applied when that happens?

The whole economic mechanism is more delicate than a fine watch. Governmental action is a big factor but the private sector is still a self-propelled affair and the equilibrium can be upset any time by the monopolistic power of organized labor.

The government rightly cracks down on trusts and monopolies when business engages in restraints of trade but no such brakes are put on the monopoly that virtually fixes prices and working hours in nearly every big industry.

The use of machines and automatic equipment are opposed in defiance of the fact that technology can be helpful in bringing prices down and increasing the public's purchases.

On the same front pages, for instance, that announced the jail sentences imposed on seven business executives for price fixing, there appeared an announcement that James R. Hoffa, head of the teamsters union, is reaching his goal of a master union agreement, covering virtually every truck driver in the country.

This would make it possible for him to tie up the nation's entire trucking system at any time that he might choose to call a strike. There's no law as yet to break up such monopolies.

MR. KENNEDY has said again and again that he hopes to bring about an economic equilibrium both at home and abroad but he will have a hard time doing so unless he is able to alter the pessimistic psychology that some of his utterances and the reports of his task forces have created.

Confidence is necessary for business planning and also for individual buying. People save their money and begin to do without things when they read about an unemployment cycle that some politicians have openly been saying will grow worse and worse.

It's a time to rebuild confidence and the President of the United States, through his press conferences on television and his messages to the Congress, could place more emphasis on the very large part of the economy that is functioning normally and on the improvements in the business situation that are already beginning to appear.

The truth about business conditions is essential because untruths are soon discovered but there is no sound reason to conceal the good when talking about the bad in our national economy today.

Old Themes Are Hits

By DAVID BARNETT

President Kennedy has demonstrated again he does not intend playing "fairy godfather" to the country.

For the last eight years, the country and the Congress have heard State of the Union speeches based on President Eisenhower's firmly held thesis that "pessimism never won a battle."

President Kennedy's somber review, just 10 days after his inauguration, was interrupted 38 times by applause but it was the old themes that got hearty audience participation: Defense of the dollar and a firm stand against Communist advancement.

President Eisenhower, in his maiden address to Congress on Feb. 2, 1953, got his biggest applause with this sentence:

"The first order of business is the elimination of the annual deficit."

PRESIDENT KENNEDY made the applause meter jump four times in the most sustained burst of the session with pledges that the dollar price of gold will not be increased, that the administration would not "distort the value of the dollar in any fashion" and that the Democrats would make certain that "in the future as in the past, the dollar is as 'sound as a dollar.'"

The Republicans, eight years ago, were energetic and hopeful, after 20 years of Democratic rule. The new chief executive was interrupted 55 times for applause.

The Democrats this year gave a warm reception to the former member of the Capitol Club who had made it to the top. But the picture of the world he painted was too drab for cheers and he used few of the devices that cued applause during the Eisenhower regime.

There were no major surprises in the Kennedy message.

In 1953, Eisenhower got cheers with the unanticipated word that he was "unleashing" the Chinese Nationalists and the Seventh Fleet would "no longer be employed to shield Communist China."

The surprise in the 1955 speech was the recommendation that 18-year-olds be given the right to vote.

In 1956, the President uncorked the economic prediction that the budget would be balanced by June and a surplus recorded the next fiscal year.

In 1957, the unexpected fillip was a recommendation for a civil rights division in the Justice Department.

LAST YEAR, President Eisenhower got cheers by adding to his prepared text the promise of a surplus of almost $5 billion in the federal budget for the current fiscal year.

This year, President Kennedy said that same budget was "almost certain to show a net deficit." The lawmakers sat on their hands when he indicated that chances of a balanced budget for the 1961-62 fiscal year were not bright.

President Kennedy managed to stir the distinguished audience three times with his restatement of the Monroe Doctrine.

The lawmakers applauded when he said the objection to the situation in Cuba was not over the people's drive for a better life but to their domination by foreign and domestic tyrannies.

Seconds later, they applauded again when he declared that Communist domination in the Western Hemisphere can never be negotiated.

Another burst came when he called for a free hemisphere of free governments.

After the speech, the President told reporters the reaction to his speech had been very "kind."

The Roof Crashed In

Jailed Executives of Electrical Companies Pondering Future

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Executives from top to bottom of the corporate ladder can reap-raise today the relation of man to company in the wake of what happened here to the electric equipment industry.

What happened was: The roof fell in.

As a result of guilty or no contest pleas to antitrust conspiracy charges 29 companies must pay fines totalling $1.78 million and 44 of their executives must pay fines totalling $137,500. Jail sentences were meted out to 31, with 24 put on five years probation and 7 others ordered to jail for 30 days starting Monday.

All concerned are pondering what their corporate future is—some already have left their jobs.

In countless other industries management men, big and little, are on notice they must be as above approach as Caesar's wife in avoiding involvement in price fixing or bid rigging. Many junior executives may wonder how far their superior will go in backing them up—may even question some practices or policies as dangerous to themselves.

The first individuals sentenced to jail looked unbelievably startled that they could be sentenced for doing their job as they had interpreted it.

Some openly showed resentment that they were being punished while "superiors weren't even in jail."

The relation of man to company in following practices deemed to aid the firms concerned varied widely among the corporations involved. Attorneys for companies and those for individuals made contrasting pleas in asking Judge J. Cullen Ganey of U. S. Dist. Court here for leniency.

Some company attorneys said their top men were unaware of the widespread price fixing and bid rigging in an industry with $2 billion a year sales. Some of their men showed active resentment of salary cuts and demotions since they were indicted last spring and insisted they were carrying out orders of their immediate superiors or instructions of their predecessors on the job.

Some of the individuals accepted the court punishment as they had accepted their company role—doing what seemed expected. They gave no indication in court of questioning the practice they held was needed to bring stability to a once highly competitive industry.

Others pleaded through their attorneys that they had first opposed the idea of price fixing, banned by antitrust laws, but found they had to go along as part of their jobs. To these the judge mostly turned a deaf ear, saying they used substantial salaries to balm their conscience. But usually he suspended jail sentences and put them on five year probation.

Many of the defendants were at or near retirement age. The fines will bear down hard. So will loss of status in company and community.

County 4-H Advisers Will Hear Speaker

LISBON — Miss Bea Cleveland, associate state 4-H club leader, will lead a discussion on "Understanding the needs of boys and girls" at the Columbiana County 4-H advisers' meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. at St. George's parish hall.

This is the second in a series of training sessions for 4-H advisers in Columbiana County. Joseph Burger, County extension agent in 4-H work, said.

Lincoln Discussed By Civil War Group

The many facets of Abraham Lincoln's character and abilities were reviewed by Hjalmar Seaberg of Beaver, Pa., a Lincoln scholar, at a meeting of the Tri-State Civil War Roundtable Wednesday night at East Liverpool.

About 25 attended the meeting at which Seaberg paid tribute to Lincoln's statesmanship, humanitarianism, military acumen, literary abilities and other talents.

In response to questioning about the Civil War president's political ambition, certain executive blunders and other criticisms of his conduct, Seaberg said Lincoln "was human and had faults."

However, he declared Lincoln was the "Greatest American," and his accomplishments will "remain a significant part of history long after details of the Civil War are forgotten."

There was a general discussion of Lincoln's stand on slavery, his selection of military leaders, the role of Edwin Stanton — secretary of state — in the administration, Mary Todd Lincoln and Lincoln's ancestry.

Four new members attended. Women of the organization will present the program at the next meeting March 14.

TO VOTE ON CONTRACT

CLEVELAND (AP) — Editorial employees of the Cleveland Plain Dealer will vote next week on a contract offer which would provide pay increases and welfare benefit payments amounting to $7 per week over a two-year period. A similar contract proposal was accepted Wednesday night by members of the Cleveland Press and News unit of the Cleveland Newspaper Guild. The vote was 100 to 1 to accept the proposal of the Scripps-Howard newspaper.

The contract provides weekly wage increases of $2.75 to $3 retroactive to Nov. 1, and $2 in the second year of the contract, plus payments for hospitalization. Top minimum in the second year will be $143.

TO PICK JAIL SITE

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Stark County Commissioners will select a site for the new $2,226,000 county jail within two weeks. They received the recommendation of the Canton Planning Commission Wednesday that they choose from a four-block area on the southeast edge of Canton Public Square.

HELD IN STABBING

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ruth Berry, 45, is being held by police in connection with the fatal stabbing of plumber Edward Shockley, 52. Police said Miss Berry Wednesday night. They had been drinking after he came to fix plumbing, police said.

Shockley was found by passers-by outside Miss Berry's East Side apartment. He was pronounced dead of natural causes at Charity Hospital. The body was taken to the county morgue where attendants discovered the stab wound.

School Appropriation Shows Gain at Leetonia

LEETONIA — The Board of Education adopted the 1961 appropriation in the amount of $340,845 at its meeting Wednesday night. This is an increase of approximately $9,000 over 1960.

Ronald Todd and Morrison Poe, industrial arts instructors at the high school, outlined future plans for the department.

The board adopted a three-year plan to improve the curriculum and work area for the industrial Arts department, which will include an additional class room. Expenditures for the project will amount to approximately $12,000. Members voted to hire a teacher for the junior high staff, to serve as a special reading instructor. The use of a tachistoscope will aid in the instruction of the students. The teacher will be named later this month.

A policy book dealing with grading, reporting and promoting for the school system was presented to the board. Staff members and teachers compiled the handbook.

The board approved the building of storage facilities in the Orchard Hill store room. This will be a project of the Student Council.

President Jack Ripley and Dr. Guy Nicolette were named to study the revised instructional personnel policy for the school system, and will report at the next meeting.

A detailed report of the practices and procedures at the library in the Orchard Hill building was submitted to the board. It was pointed out that members of the Thursday Reading Club volunteer as librarians every morning.

Mrs. Carol Rufner was hired as home economics instructor. The board authorized the clerk, Mrs. Gladys Gause, to attend a workshop for business managers and clerks to be held in Columbus next week.

Board members Wayne Holloway and Dr. Paul Conrad, Superintendent of Schools, Dr. W. W. Gephart, and Mrs. Gause were also present at the meeting.

who simply visit a clinic and return home.

Community visiting nurse services for a so far unspecified period.

Apart from the health insurance program, Kennedy recommended:

Nursing home construction grants—doubling of the present authorization of $10 million annually in matching grants, shared by the federal government on the one hand and local governments or private institutions on the other hand.

Grants to improve nursing-home and home nursing services — he said "an initial appropriation will lay the groundwork for more efficient and better balanced care for the aged and chronically ill."

He also called for creation of a new bureau of community health in the public health service.

Hospital research and development—Congress would determine each year the amount necessary, and the surgeon general would be authorized to make project grants.

Increasing health personnel—A program of federal scholarships for talented medical and dental students in need of financial assistance. Federal funds averaging $1,500 each a year for one fourth of students newly entering a school. These would be four-year scholarships with the amount of aid geared in each case to the student's need. None would be eligible for more than $2,000 a year.

But in addition the schools participating would receive a cost-of-education grant of $1,000 for each federal scholarship to cover expense not met by tuition and fees.

Improving the health of children and youth—Creation of a new national institute of child health and human development, including a center for research in child health.

The President also called for an unspecified increase in appropriations for the existing programs in maternal and child health, crippled children and child welfare.

Vocational rehabilitation — Kennedy said he will specify later an increase in funds he wants for rapid expansion of aid for disabled Americans to speed their return to active and useful lives.

Medical research—Provision of $50 million annually for three years under the program of matching grants for construction of research facilities. The Eisenhower administration requested $30 million for the next fiscal year.

Kennedy also asked for an increase—he didn't say how much—in the $540 million fund Eisenhower sought in the new fiscal year for medical research, and for removal of the current limitation on federal payment of indirect costs of medical research projects.

Lisbon Man Guilty on Motor Vehicle Charge

LISBON — Albert E. Shasteen, 36, of Lisbon RD 1 was found guilty by a Common Pleas Court jury Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

Judge Joel H. Sharp held up sentencing pending application for a new trial, but Atty. Carl Stouffer of Homeworth, defendant's court-appointed attorney, said he would waive the three-day period for making application for a new trial and request that an investigation be made for probation.

Shasteen was found guilty of taking a car owned by Michael W. Beiling from his parking place on S. Market St. Dec. 28. Shasteen was arrested in the car by East Liverpool police after they were alerted by sheriff's radio.

Columbiana Schedules Its Community Event For Feb. 20

COLUMBIANA — Annual Washington's birthday banquet, also known as Community Men's Night will be held Monday, Feb. 20, at 6:30 p.m. at Heck's Restaurant. Sponsored by American Legion Post 290, the banquet is supported by the service clubs and other organizations. Instead of a speaker for the program, as had been customary, the Legion will present the Welcome-Airs Barbershop Quartet from East Liverpool. BOARD OF EDUCATION took another step this week toward the start of actual construction of the new south side elementary school approved by voters last November. The board started legal advertising, asking contractors to bid on erecting the school house, and also a separate bid on construction of an addition to Columbiana Public Library, the second part of the building package to be financed by the $254,000 bond issue. Bids on the construction will be opened Tuesday, March 7, and the board reserves the right to study the offers for up to 30 days before awarding a contract or, in the event none of the bids are considered satisfactory, turning all the proposals down. The board hopes for an early spring start to the construction work.

In a separate advertisement, the board is asking for bids on constructing sanitary sewers from existing village lines to the new school site. Those bids will be opened March 3.

A WALL PLAQUE honoring Dr. A. King, first president of the Columbiana Rose Society and still in office, was presented at the society's meeting Tuesday night in the high school building. The presentation was by Cliff Orr, who designed and made the plaque. The evening's program featured the movie, "Modern Roses on Parade." Lunch was served by Mrs. Mary Yereb and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chamberlain. The society still is accepting members. Interested rose fanciers may contact Mrs. Cliff Orr, secretary, for information.

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary are asked to take canned goods and other staples to the meeting Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 8 p.m. The food will be distributed to needy families. Guest night will be observed for the meeting in the post home.

Salem Will Try to Rebound Against Boardman Friday

Spartans Carry Poor 3-12 Record

Quakers Heavy Favorites to Record 13th Victory; Only 3 Games Left

The Salem Quakers return to the friendly confines of their home gym Friday night to take on the Boardman Spartans of the Steel Valley Conference.

The Spartans have lost 12 games and won only three and have been the doormat of the conference where they have a 1-9 record. Boardman is one of the largest high schools in the area with approximately 1,100 students.

Salem has a 12-3 record and just had an 11-game winning streak snapped last week at East Liverpool. Salem High's enrollment is around 700.

BOARDMAN HAD a 4-14 record last season and from that squad the Spartans lost their three top scorers through graduation. Two regulars back from last year are Ted Cackowsky, 6-4, and Chuck Port, 6-0. Both are seniors. They, along with newcomers Skip Backus and Bud Frazier, have been carrying most of the offensive load.

Last year, when Salem posted a 95-72 win over the Spartans at Boardman, Cackowsky and Port each tallied 12 points.

AFTER FRIDAY'S tilt, Salem will have just two more games to play before tournament time. The Quakers still must face Youngstown East on Tuesday and then wind up against defending state champion Dayton Roosevelt who currently is the number one rated team in Ohio. That clash is slated for the Salem gym on Feb. 17.

Going into the Boardman game, Don Davidson continues to lead the Quakers in both scoring and rebounding. The 6-5 co-captain, high on everybody's list for All-Ohio honors, is averaging 18.8 points per game. He is also averaging 11.6 rebounds per tilt.

JUNIOR BOB ESKAY has scored in double figures in 13 of Salem's 15 games and currently is carrying a 14.5 average. Davidson has been in double digits in 12 of the 14 games he has played.

Sophomore Bill Beery has hit in double figures in 10 contests and junior Ted Thorne has had 10 or more points in four games. The other starter, junior John Borrelli, has been in double figures for two games.

Tipoff time for the reserve fray Friday will be 7:30. The main game is slated for about 9 p.m. Officials for the game will be Paul Eskins and David Nicol.

Here are Salem's statistics after 15 games:

The Annual Tri-State Basketball Tournament will be held at Memorial Auditorium in East Liverpool on April 3, 4, 10 and 12.

Teams wishing to enter the tourney may obtain information by writing the Tri-State Tournament, 132 E. Sixth St., East Liverpool.

The Classic League, which can almost always be counted upon to turn out some pretty hot scores, came through again last night at Saxon Lanes where 10 men rolled series of over 600.

Paul Scullion set a fast pace with a blazing 645 series which included a 266 high single game.

Also up in the high figures were Frank Dowd, 621-230-212; Dick Dowd, 610-221-215; Jim Jackson, 615-233-204; Orrie Snyder, 615-233-204; Fred Culler, 612-222-203; Gene Dean, 614-227-202; Clyde Stoffer, 611-212-205; Walt Miller, 610-207-210; and C. Malloy, 601-207-210.

Falling just short of the magic 600 were Jerry Colazzi, 599-214; Glenn Oesch, 599; and John Priddon, 591-265.

Alibi Inn took team honors with 2960-1057. Shorty's Cab notched a 2947-1053.

In the Bliss Day Turn League, William Krauss came up with a fine 599-211-211. D. Jackson's 582 was high single game. He had a 586 series. R. Dowd recorded a 690-214.

The Timmers swept team honors with 2882-901.

E. Westphal was top man in the Bliss Nite Turn League with a 590-728. Don Oesch had a 586-208. Art Price, 564; and E. Mozzina, 558-200.

Team high series went to the Chipmunks with a 2003. They also came up with a high single game of 943.

Three More Players Sign Red Contracts

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds have brought the number of signed players for the 1961 season to 30.

General Manager Bill DeWitt said Wednesday signed contracts have been received from pitchers Joey Jay, Claude Osteen and Ray Rippelmeyer.

Jay, 25, was obtained from Milwaukee in an off-season trade. Osteen, 21, was with the Reds all of last season and has been pitching in Puerto Rico this winter. Rippelmeyer was with Seattle of the Pacific Coast League last year and had a 16-13 record with a 2.71 earned run average.

OSU Sweeps Big Ten Cage Statistics for Second Week

CHICAGO (AP)—How good can you get? Unbeaten Ohio State for the second straight week has swept the Big Ten basketball statistical sheet clean.

The top-ranked Buckeyes (7-0) will take this awesome record against lowly Michigan State (1-6) Saturday.

Average points a game—88.1, Illinois second with 76.5; average defensive yield—59.8, Iowa second with 60.8; rebounds—51.3 a game, Illinois second with 50; field goal percentage—49.5, Iowa second with 43.7; free throw percentage—78.5, Purdue second with 75.3.

The Buckeyes' Jerry Lucas, hitting 51 points in his last two games, is closing in on Purdue's Terry Dischinger in the individual scoring race. Dischinger has a 26.3 average and Lucas 24.8, with Indiana's Walt Bellamy taking over third with 23.0.

Bellamy has regained the rebounding lead with 16.2 a game to 15.4 for Lucas. The latter stays No. 1 in field goal accuracy with a .625 mark.

Dischinger has made good on 60 out of 65 free throws for a .923—a percentage matched by Ohio State's Larry Siegfried with 36 out of 38 hits. Lucas is .824 in this department.

High School Squads Tune Up for Tourney

By DICK BRAUTIGAM

It doesn't seem possible but regular season play for area basketball teams has just about come to the end of the line. Except, possible for teams such as Western Reserve, Lisbon, and Jackson-Milton, who have won just two games among them, it has been a mighty fast season.

All but two area teams will wind up their season next week. As might be expected one of the stragglers is East Liverpool. The Potters don't finish up until Feb. 24 against Weirton, W. Va. Wellsville closes just three nights earlier against the Potters.

The first tournament games are slated for a week from Monday. That's when the Mahoning County Class A tournament gets underway at the Struthers Field House.

In the first round of that tourney on Feb. 20, Sebring will play Western Reserve at 6 p.m.; Greenford and Lowellville will tangle at 7:20; and North Lima is paired against Jackson-Milton at 8:40. Springfield Local drew a bye.

The tourney will continue on Feb. 22, 23, 24 and 25. It takes two losses to eliminate a team. Two survivors will advance to the Class A Sectional at Warren.

The Class AA Sectional at Struthers is slated to open on Feb. 21 while the Youngstown Sectional starts on Feb. 23. Drawings will be made Monday for both of these tourneys.

For this weekend, however, there is still a full slate of regular season action. Fourteen area games are on tap Friday and 11 more are ticketed for Saturday.

With four correct predictions out of five on Tuesday, our record going into this weekend's action is 121 truths and 35 half truths.

Here is the way we see the scores for Friday and Saturday.

FRIDAY
East Liverpool 75, Toronto 51: If Toronto hasn't played in Liverpool for awhile, boy, are they in for a surprise or two! Kenny Cunningham and Kenny Miller would be mighty tough to keep off an all-city first team.

Canfield 54, Greenfield 54: The Cards have a six-game victory streak going. Greenfield has come a long way since bowing to Canfield by 21 points earlier in the season. This game will be close but the Cards are probably too big for the Bobcats to handle on the boards.

West Branch 61, Springfield Local 45: The Warriors pack too much scoring punch for the Tigers. Fairfield-Waterford 58, North Lima 49: Tom Messenger is "laying" again and that gives the Rebels an edge. North Lima has a 10-10 record but three of those wins have come in succession. This should be another good game.

Wellsville 77, Chester 47: Coach Jack McDevitt has put a few of his non-producing seniors on the bench. The Tigers are winning and the nasty phone calls requesting information on the coach's scalp have suddenly ceased. No, it was not the coach's dandruff the Tigers fans were concerned about.

Warren St. Mary's 48, Jackson-Milton 45: This one gets our nomination as the "dream game" of the week. St. Mary's has a 2-11 record while Jackson-Milton is 0-15. With Lowellville and West Branch the only two remaining teams on the schedule, this is the last good chance Coach Chet Tetlow's Blue Jays have of breaking into the win column this season.

Columbiana 65, Minerva 61: When Poland halted Minerva's 37-game Tri-County League winning streak last week, much of the glitter was removed from the Columbiana-Minerva clash. If the Bulldogs hadn't snapped the streak we believe the Clippers would have. Now that the pressure is off, the Lions will be tougher.

Poland 65, Lisbon 46: The Blue Devils beat Leontia for their only win of the season last week and that was one more victory than the Lisbon fans had any right to expect. Another win and Coach Gary Pike should get a "Coach of the Year" nomination.

East Palestine 63, Louisville 57: If Columbiana comes through against Minerva, East Palestine can tie the Lions for the Tri-County lead. The Bulldogs would love to have the basketball title to go with their football crown.

Sebring 51, Leontia 50: Any team that can beat Poland on one night, then turn around and lose to Lisbon the following night is a mixed up outfit. That's the Leontia Bears. Now watch them cream the Trojans.

McDonald 52, Vienna 50: The home court sways us here. Carrollton 57, United 45: The Golden Eagles have rolled up some pretty good scores in winning their last three games. However, starting with Carrollton, the last three opponents get succeeding tougher. United will have to pull an upset to win any of them.

Salineville 67, Beaver Local 64: Beaver posted a 12-point victory over the Indians in January. In what figures to be about the most evenly matched game of the night, Salineville, which has a 7-8 record, is in a good position to hand a fine Beaver Local quintet its fourth loss in 15 encounters.

Salem 84, Boardman 47: It has been three years since a John Cabas-coached Salem team has lost two regular season games in a row. That loss to East Liverpool last week wasn't the end of the world. From about 9 to 10-15 p.m. Friday, the Spartans may be wishing it had been.

SATURDAY
Greenford 60, Fairfield-Waterford 57: Get that! And on the Rebels' home floor, too!

Wellsville 58, West Branch 51: West Branch has an 11-2 record while Wellsville is 7-5. The Warriors have a better balanced club but they don't have Bob Kiggins. Robert is a better ball player than he showed against Salem a couple of weeks ago. The Tigers should control the boards.

Lowellville 66, Jackson-Milton 38: If only Jim Reeves hadn't graduated.

Minerva 70, Leontia 44: If the Bears win this one, they should go on to cop the state title. No ticket requests accepted in Columbus from Leontia until after Saturday night.

East Palestine 58, Poland 55: Isn't there a law against staging public Bulldog fights?

McDonald 58, Mineral Ridge 52: This is the last game on the schedule for McDonald, the Inter-County League champs.

Cardinal Mooney 61, Warren St. Mary's 36: It's hard to expect 1,500 plays one with 400 students.

Salineville 61, United 56: Chances are, these same two teams will meet again in the Columbiana County Class A tournament. United will give the Indians a game Saturday on the Eagles' home court.

Sebring 55, Louisville 52: If the Trojans have all their regulars ready to play again they should avenge one of their 11 losses this season.

North Carolina, DePaul Beaten

Louisville Cuffed by Eastern Kentucky

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sixth-ranked North Carolina, and tournament-bound Louisville and DePaul went traveling—and tumbling—Wednesday night. The Tar Heels, losing their second in a row, were beaten 89-82 by a South Carolina team that had lost all eight of its previous Atlantic Coast Conference games. Tenth-ranked Louisville (17-4), attempting to celebrate its at-large berth in the NCAA tournament, was cuffed 80-74 by Eastern Kentucky.

DePaul (12-5) went down by a whopping 87-64 to Marquette's Warriors only 24 hours after accepting a place in the National Invitation Tournament.

Bradley Shakes Slump
The three shockers featured a jam-packed Wednesday night college program that also saw fourth ranked Bradley snap a three-game losing streak, 111-84 over Tampa and NIT-bound Providence (16-2) make Boston U. its ninth straight victim, 67-59.

South Carolina (7-11) fashioned its North Carolina upset with 62 per cent shooting that overbalanced a combined 63-point job by the Tar Heels' one-two punch of York Larese (36) and Doug Moe (29). Ronnie Johnson's 21 points, and late shooting by Art Whisnant and Bobby Robinson triggered South Carolina from a 10-point deficit midway in the second half.

Western Kentucky (15-4), leading the chase for the Ohio Valley Conference berth in the NCAA tournament, whipped non-conference foe Xavier of Ohio, 68-61, and Ohio U. fattened its Mid-American conference lead, whipping Miami (Ohio) 91-75 while second place Toledo lost to Bowling Green 67-63.

Villanova Routs Canisius
Jack Foley scored 43 points as Holy Cross (12-4) bolstered its chances for an NIT berth, 106-95 over Dartmouth. Niagara's NIT hopes went up in a 74-52 rout of Syracuse. St. Sherard's 22 points led Army (14-5) over Rider, 67-55 and Navy edged William & Mary 69-67.

Villanova scored a 108-77 rout of Canisius in a Palestra windup that opened with LaSalle's 67-62 squeaker over Gettysburg, and Tulsa handed Oklahoma City its third straight loss, 78-73. Bowdoin snapped Maine's 10-game win streak, 69-62 and VPI beat VMI 86-85.

To top off the hectic evening, Lehigh beat Lafayette for the first time since Jan. 29, 1944. Since that time Lafayette had beaten its arch rival 38 straight times. This time it was Lehigh 60, Lafayette 58 with Jack Palfi scoring 19 points for the winners.

X-Rays Show Temple Had Fractured Ankle
CLEVELAND (AP)—Johnny Temple, who disappointed last year with the Cleveland Indians, says he played on a fractured ankle a good part of the season.

Temple was injured in a game May 21 and was benched for two weeks. The ailment was called a bruised tendon, but the ankle bothered him from then until September. Altogether, Temple appeared in only 98 games.

He said Wednesday X-rays at Johns Hopkins Hospital after the season disclosed a hairline ankle fracture.

Uncashed mutual tickets at Hialeah in Florida in 1960 amounted to more than $40,000.

Pistons, Lakers Vie For Second Place

By The Associated Press
With slightly more than a month remaining in the regular National Basketball Association season, the only unsettled position in the standings appears to be the scramble for second place in the Western Division.

The Detroit Pistons and the Los Angeles Lakers are the teams involved with the Pistons currently a game in front of the Lakers. The fourth-place Cincinnati Royals, who had been in contention for a playoff berth, have dropped 4½ games behind Los Angeles and 5½ behind Detroit.

The Pistons and the Lakers kept pace with each other Wednesday night, Detroit edging the Philadelphia Warriors 125-123 and Los Angeles turning back St. Louis 120-103 in the only other game played the Syracuse Nats romped over the Boston Celtics 130-108.

Xavier Suffers Fifth Loss

Ohio U. Buries Miami 91-75; Bowling Green Shades Toledo

Don't look now but the Mid-American Conference basketball race is beginning to look like a carbon copy of the 1959-60 chase. Defending champion Ohio University strengthened its hold on the top spot with a 91-75 triumph over Miami Wednesday night while prime challenger Toledo dropped its second loop game of the year, this one to Bowling Green 67-63.

The outcomes put Miami and the Falcons into a tie for third place with identical records. And that's just how the 1959-60 standings wound up.

Ohio U.'s Bunk Adams shattered a 20-year record when he dropped in his final two points of the night—for a total of 18. The field goal gave him 1,097 points in his career at the Athens school, one better than the mark set in 1941 by former major league baseball player Frank Baumholtz.

Falcons Shoot 50 Per Cent
Toledo couldn't cool off Bowling Green's hot-shooting Falcons. The Bee Gees hit 60.9 per cent in the first half and wound up with an even 50 per cent from the field. The defeat dropped the Rockets 1½ games behind the Bobcats.

Ohio U. (8-1) has three conference games remaining — Kent State (1-5) and Bowling Green (4-4) at Athens and the finale at Miami (4-4). Toledo (6-2) has four MAC games left—Western Michigan (1-7) away, Marshall (4-5) and Kent at home and then the Rockets also wind up their season at Miami.

Elsewhere around the Ohio cage scene, Xavier suffered its fifth defeat in 17 games, a 68-61 decision to Western Kentucky on the Hilltoppers' court, and Kent State suffered its 11th loss in 17 games but pushed Duquesne into overtime before falling, 79-77, at Pittsburgh.

Tenn State Still Rated 1st

Southern Illinois 2nd
On Small College List

By The Associated Press
The Tennessee State Tigers still are rated the nation's No. 1 small college basketball team in spite of two recent defeats. But Southern Illinois and Prairie View are creeping closer.

In this week's voting by the 8-man Associated Press panel of sports writers and broadcasters, Tennessee State drew only two votes for first place but accumulated enough points to retain first place on the list.

On the usual 10-9-8 etc. point basis for votes from first to 10th place, it was Tenn State 74, Southern Illinois, conqueror of the Tigers, 65 and unbeaten Prairie View 63.

The top 10, with first place votes and won-lost records in parentheses:

1. Tennessee State (2) (17-3) 74
2. Southern Illinois (2) (17-3) 65
3. Prairie View (3) (17-0) 63
4. Hofstra (14-2) 44
5. Miss Southern (17-1) 42
6. Maine (1) (15-2) 35
7. Grambling (20-3) 30
8. Northern Michigan (14-1) 20
9. Westminster (Pa) (13-2) 17
10. Kentucky Wesleyan (11-6) 11

Traditional Opener at Washington

American League Begins 60th Baseball Season on April 10

BOSTON (AP)—The expanded American League opens its 60th baseball season April 10 when it welcomes two new franchises and also—it hopes — President Kennedy to its year of "firsts."

The 1961 schedule announced today by American League President Joe Cronin lists the traditional opener at Washington with Chicago providing the opposition.

While Griffith's Stadium will provide a familiar surrounding and the name "Washington Senators" a familiar ring, the franchise is new. So is the Los Angeles entry.

What fans knew last season as the Washington club has moved its bats, gloves and business aspirations to Minnesota's twin cities, Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Conditions permitting, President Kennedy—noted for his keen interest in athletics—will keynote the AL year of change by throwing out the first pitch for the first time.

The American League boasts these other firsts:

1. First major circuit to move to 10-team a year in advance of the National League target date for the addition of New York and Houston.
 2. Increase of the team schedules from 154 to 162 games.
 3. First regular scheduling of two-night doubleheaders. Previously two-night doubleheaders were allowed only as makeups for postponed games.
- Unlike 1960 when the AL started a week later than the National, the two get underway together this season with the Washington inaugural day in advance of all other action.
- Tuesday, April 11, the Minnesota twins are at New York and Los Angeles is at Baltimore.
- The schedule lists 376 single night games ranging from 55 at Kansas City and 54 at Los Angeles down to 22 each at Boston and Detroit.
- The first All Star game is slated for San Francisco's National League park July 11 and the second at Boston July, 31.

Akron Edges Mount Union

In the Ohio Conference Marietta (5-2), led by Carl Wolfe's 22 points, downed Muskingum (1-9) by 80-64; Akron (6-3) led all the way in defeating Mount Union (3-7) by 77-65, and Otterbein (5-7) took the lead with 6:50 remaining to edge Oberlin (3-5) by 85-81. In non-conference affairs: Youngstown (16-5) had little trouble in getting by Alliance (Pa.) 87-51. The Penguins hit 36 of 64 from the field compared with Alliance's 19 of 82.

Ohio Northern (10-6) swamped Goshen (Ind.) 112-81. The victors scored 62 points in the final 20 minutes.

Steubenville had all five of its starters score in double figures as the Barons (10-9) rolled, 84-71, over Geneva (Pa.). The Barons led 42-29 at intermission.

Defiance suffered its second defeat in 16 games, an 85-71 thumping at the hands of Tri State (Ind.). The Yellow Jackets, who lead the Mid-Ohio League, led 42-40 at halftime but couldn't hold on. Malone College of Canton beat Rio Grande 75-62.

Dave Zeller of Miami and Larry Jones of Toledo put on great foul shooting displays. Zeller with 16 of 17 and Jones with 14 of 15 were high point men in their games with 32 and 28, respectively.

Amateurs Added to Pro Wrestling Card Here

Two Salem area amateurs have been added to the wrestling card at the Hi-Neighbor Dance Hall on Feb. 17.

Mike Moudger, 170, will take on Haywood Whitehair, 155, in the amateur bout.

Three professional bouts that night will feature "The Crusher" against Ace Freeman; Don Fargo against Billy Fox; and Pete Kovac against Ed Fiata.

Only Yankee pitchers who held Pirate hero Bill Mazeroski hitless in the World Series were Ryne Duren and Bobby Shantz. Both retired him twice.

Bill Mazeroski says the toughest pitcher he faced in the World Series was Whitey Ford. Maz made one single in six trips against Ford.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. H. T. HYMAN

Information About Vitamins

What's the truth about vitamins anyway?

I was shocked the other day to read in an official government publication that the Department of Justice was forced to seize 50,600 bottles of mislabeled vitamin preparations, manufactured and sold by one of the most respected drug companies.

Since most of us are bombarded with misinformation about vitamins, here is a brief review of the role these important food elements play in the lives of normal individuals, eating average meals served in the average civilized community.

The average American diet provides more than the daily requirement of all vitamins. The label on the seized bottles that suggested the impossibility of maintaining adequate nutrition on a diet of ordinary foods because of "depleted soils, premature harvesting, faulty storage, processing, destruction" is, as charged, false.

Equally false is the statement that "practically everyone is, or is in danger of, suffering from inadequate vitamin and mineral nutrition unless a vitamin or mineral supplement is added to the diet." For example, I have never in my professional life seen a vitamin deficiency in an otherwise healthy American who ate the average foods, served from the average American kitchen, by the average American housewife.

THERE IS NO VIRTUE in taking vitamin excesses. There is no such thing as an anti-infective vitamin. The claims that C vitamins (ascorbic or cevitamin acid) prevent or modify the common cold or rheumatic fever have been exploded. The claim that a vitamin exerts a favorable influence on acne is nonsense. And the claims for E vitamin, relative to fertility and heart disease have been disproven.

In these difficult times, with living costs steadily rising, there's no need for the housewife to purchase supplementary vitamins, minerals or special foods so long as she serves a breakfast of orange or tomato juice; a hot cereal with sugar, butter and milk; bread or toast with butter or oleomargarine; and whole milk that has been enriched with vitamin D; a luncheon of a meat or cheese sandwich or hamburger or hot dogs, milk or cocoa and an apple or a banana; and a dinner that includes meat, fish or poultry; potato; a green and a yellow vegetable; bread and butter; and a dessert of canned fruit, fruit pie or an occasional treat of ice cream.

These recommendations should not be interpreted as a blanket condemnation of vitamin therapy. WHEN NEEDED. But, unless you have a true vitamin deficiency, diagnosed by your doctor, and you have been ordered to take a specific vitamin, prescribed by your doctor, better spend the hard-earned household dollar on what folks used to call "vittles."

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

President Kennedy will need all his touch football technique to slip unshaken out of his first big political scrimmage. Business leaders have decided to tackle him this early in the game. They believe he plans to freeze prices but not wages. It all springs out of John Kennedy's creation of the President's Advisory Committee on Labor-Management Policy.

Shortly after Mr. Kennedy announced the committee's creation on Thursday, officials of the National Association of Manufacturers, the Chamber of Commerce and some of the nation's biggest companies telephoned each other.

They found they had not been advised in advance. They believe labor had known of the coming of the 21-man committee which will meet regularly with the President in the White House. They checked with each other over the week end. They discovered they still had not been briefed, consulted, nor their advice and consent sought.

What concerned them most in the President's anti-depression prescription message were the words, "We cannot afford unsound wage policies and price movements."

"Also, 'Neither will we seek to buy short-run economic gains by paying the price in excessive increases in the cost of living.'"

THE COST of living is measured by an index which is made up of an average of hundreds of prices. To keep the index down, prices must be kept down. To keep prices down the new 21-man committee will publicly criticize any industry's efforts to move its prices up with new costs.

The steel people, for example, in their private weekend discussions of the President's new advisory group, pointed out that they have not raised prices since the summer of 1958. But they did hike wages after the 116-day strike.

Now the industry feels it may not get a chance to adjust for years. This is their argument—and it means many a future argument behind the scenes for Mr. Kennedy and his advisors.

The President is aware of the coming deluge. There are reports that he has asked his secretary of labor, Arthur Goldberg, to attempt to talk the labor leaders into disciplining themselves from refraining from demanding pay increases.

Mr. Goldberg is expected to make an unsentimental journey to Miami Beach later this month. There he'll confer with the executive boards of virtually all the nation's big unions.

THESE GROUPS met prior to the AFL-CIO Executive Council session opening Feb. 20. Mr. Goldberg is expected to come away with pledges of cooperation from the union chiefs he once counseled.

That won't soothe the industrialists. They'll argue that most of them have signed contracts calling for pay raises during the coming two to five years.

Also they believe they'll be clobbered by the President's new advisory committee—five of whom JFK will name personally. Seven labor leaders will be chosen by Mr. Goldberg and seven businessmen by Secretary of Commerce

Hodges.

Chairman for the first year will be the labor secretary. Then Luther Hodges will preside. This is the "United Nations-type of labor-management conference" which Goldberg has been proposing for some two years.

The business leaders say the arithmetic adds up but not the final reckoning. They point out that labor will be represented by such national leaders as George Meany and Walter Reuther.

Thus, say the businessmen, there will be a national labor-management committee directly under the President of the U.S., in effect making powerful decisions for all industry.

It would be as though we were at war. This would be nationwide bargaining under the glare of national publicity. A few would be making decisions for all industrialists.

This, they say, would at the very least, be deliberation without representation. They plan to fight. This will be John Kennedy's first presidential battle.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: A friend who is intelligent about most things has a weakness for fortune tellers.

Last Wednesday she told me that Friday was destined to be her unlucky day, according to the fortune teller, and she was going to stay home and avoid all danger. She canceled a long-standing bridge luncheon date and I had to invite someone on short notice.

Saturday morning this friend phoned from the hospital. When she was getting out of the bathtub Friday night she slipped and broke her arm.

In her opinion, does this prove that the fortune teller was right or wrong?—RUBY.

Dear Ruby: This proves nothing except perhaps your friend should buy a rubber nonskid bath mat and have a handrail installed in her bathroom just above the tub.

In Hands of Receiver

Dear Ann: Nine years ago my husband's brother died. He took over his brother's business which was then struggling and in debt. The widow was to remain a 50 per cent partner.

My husband built the business into a successful enterprise. The widow remarried (a jerk) who has a fair job but nothing to crow about. He's forever poking his nose into the business saying he wants to "protect his wife's interest." My husband has told him repeatedly that she doesn't need any protection but he doesn't take the hint.

The widow has drawn more than $100,000 out of the business and my husband has done all the sweating. Do you think this is fair? He's getting ulcers from the jerk besides. Please tell us if there is anything we can do to break up this partnership.—GRIPED.

Dear Griped: The first thing your husband should do is hire an attorney. No move should be made without appropriate legal guidance.

He has at least two good alternatives. He can have the attorney draw up a "you buy or I'll buy you" agreement or he can effect a dissolution of the business and start again on his own. No one can be forced to remain in business with a partner he doesn't want.

That First Kiss

Dear Ann: I'm a college student with a question too ridiculous to discuss with friends or acquaintances. Is it possible to outgrow the thrill of a kiss?

When I started dating, a certain fellow (I'll call him Gerald) was my star crush. He's the first boy who ever kissed me romantically. I get a tingle even now, seven years later, when I think of him. His kisses used to ship me right out of this hemisphere.

Gerald went the way of all first crushes but no fellow has been able to thrill me with his kisses the way he did. Is it because I really loved him? Am I more mature now? Haven't I found the right guy? Or am I just immune? —THE THRILL IS GONE.

Dear Gone: I can't tell if you're immune because I don't know what kind of inoculation you've had. If you've kissed a long list of fellows since Gerald, it could be that a kiss no longer has meaning. You may be more mature but maturity does not diminish the thrill of a kiss. It may be that you haven't met the right one but chances are that no one will be able to replace Gerald's special brand of kisses, since he was the first.

NAMED TO POST — Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr., 43, Harvard University professor, has been appointed by President Kennedy as a full-time special assistant.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Some Fancy Tricks for Teen-Age Cooks

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

These fancy food tricks are designed for short-order teen-age cooks.

A Valentine party coming up? Then heart-embellished open sandwich cutouts will help you cut up at refreshment time.

These are boy-size sandwich cutouts. If there are canape cutters around the kitchen, each slice of bread and cheese may be cut into 4 squares and a tiny heart-shaped cutter used on the cheese. We advise these small editions for an all-girl party.

For dessert, let cupid eat cake. Bake a sponge cake as you would for jelly roll, in a jelly-roll pan. Then cut out hearts of various sizes from the cake. Frost in pink and decorate with slices of candied cherries and silver dragees.

Or serve a chocolate layer cake; fill and cover with pink peppermint frosting. Then outline a big heart and arrow on the top with small pieces of semi-sweet chocolate.

Melting Heart Sandwiches
1 can (4½ ounces) deviled ham, ¼ cup chili sauce, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 8 slices bread (crusts removed), 4 sandwich-size slices white American cheese.

Mix together the ham, chili sauce and onion. Toast bread on one side only under the broiler; spread ham mixture on untoasted sides.

Cut out 4 cheese hearts with a heart-shaped cookie cutter. Place the 4 hearts in center of 4 slices of the ham-spread toast; place the 4 heart frames from the cheese on the other 4 slices of the ham-spread toast. Broil until cheese melts slightly.

Steamed Date Pudding

1½ cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup shortening, ½ cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 teaspoons grated orange rind, 2-3 cup milk, 1 cup chopped dates.

Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream shortening and sugar; beat in egg thoroughly with electric mixer or beat egg until thick with hand rotary beater and add. Beat in vanilla and orange rind.

Stir in sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk just until smooth; fold in dates. Steam in greased 1-quart mold for 1½ hours. FOOD Curried Boiled Chicken . . . 1 broiler-fryer, ¼ cup butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 teaspoon paprika, ½ teaspoon curry powder, 1 clove garlic (peeled and crushed).

Chicken should be about 2½ pounds ready-to-cook weight; have it cut in 10 pieces; wash and dry. Cream butter with remaining ingredients; spread under side of chicken with half of mixture.

Broil with seasoned side up until brown; turn and spread with remaining butter mixture; continue broiling until brown and cooked through. Baste occasionally with drippings.

Adjust heat or pan so broiling time takes about 45 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Shrimp, Most Popular Sea Food

Almost everyone enjoys shrimp. Therefore use them often in your meatless menus. In salads, they make a pleasant dish for luncheon parties, or as a main course when a thick chowder or bean soup is served first.

Escabeche Of Shrimp

(6 servings) 175 calories each

Sprinkle shrimp with lime juice and salt. Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a large skillet. Saute onion and garlic just until onion is transparent.

Discard garlic and remove onion to plate. Braise shrimp in flavored oil for about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally, until pink.

Dip egg-coated oysters in corn meal mixture; fry in hot deep fat

Meringue Hearts

2-3 cup butter, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 1½ cups sifted flour, ¾ teaspoon baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons milk 1½ cups quick-cooking or regular rolled oats, meringue.

Cream butter and sugar; beat in egg and vanilla. Add sifted flour, baking powder and salt alternately with milk to creamed mixture.

Stir in rolled oats. Chill. Roll out on lightly floured board or canvas to ¼-inch thickness. Cut with well-floured heart-shaped cookie cutter.

Bake on greased cookie sheets in moderate (375 degrees) oven 10 to 12 minutes; cool on wire racks.

Just before serving, top with meringue; bake in hot (400 degrees) oven 3 to 4 minutes. To Make Meringue: Beat 2 egg whites and ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar together until frothy. Beat in ¼ cup sugar gradually until stiff. Lightly stir in 2 drops peppermint extract and 2 or 3 drops red food coloring.

First Missile Railroad Car to Roll Off Factory Assembly Line

Workmen put the finishing touches on a unique railroad car—the first to be especially designed and built as a roving carrier and launching platform for a missile. The missile is the Minuteman, a 58-foot, solid-fueled ICBM that can be stored longer and fired more quickly than liquid-fueled types.

The U.S. plans to put about 150 of them on the rails by 1963, plans hundreds of others in fixed, underground sites. The car, built at American Car and Foundry's Berwick, Pa., plant, is 88 feet long and features special "three-way-stretch" cushioning to shockproof the missile.

Sketches show how the mobile missile system will work. Wheels are locked in place and jacks lower to raise the car slightly to a stable firing position; a steel flame deflector lowers over the rails to protect them from the blast.

Clamshell doors, covering most of the car's length, open. The missile is elevated in its protecting sheath.

Finally, Minuteman is exposed and ready to fire at a preselected target halfway around the world.

Main Dish Salads Add Menu Variety

Main dish salads taste especially good for mealtime variety. For such a winter menu a pair of hearty salads would fill the bill well. Princess potato and mixed pea are salads that make an interesting and taste-tempting platter duo.

For the something hot on the menu serve bowls of steaming soup.

Princess Potato Salad

1/2 cup mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons prepared mustard, 1 can (1 lb.) white potatoes, 3 hard cooked eggs, 1/4 cup sliced ripe olives, 2 tablespoons sliced green pepper, 1 cup thinly sliced celery, 1 small onion, salt, pepper, salad greens.

Combine mayonnaise and mustard; add drained potatoes cut in large cubes. Chill 2 or 3 hours to blend flavors.

Add coarsely cut eggs, olives, green pepper, celery and diced onion. Season to taste. Chill. Serve on crisp greens.

Mixed Pea Salad

1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1/4 cup French dressing, 1 can (1 lb.) peas, 1 cup sliced celery, 1/2 cup diced

American cheese, salt, pepper, salad greens.

Mix mayonnaise and French dressing. Add drained peas and chill several hours, until flavors blend.

Mix with celery and cheese. Season to taste. Serve on crisp greens, 5X servings.

ents into a bowl. Cut in shortening until particles are fine. Beat egg slightly; add with milk to flour-shortening mixture, stirring just enough to moisten. (If dough doesn't hold together, add 1 or 2 tablespoons milk.)

Divide dough into thirds; roll out each piece on lightly floured board or canvas to 1/8-inch thickness.

Cut four 6-inch rounds from each. Place 1/4 cup cooled Beef Filling on half of each round; moisten edge with water; fold dough over filling; seal with fork or fingers.

Let stand 5 to 10 minutes. Fry in hot deep fat (375 degrees) for about 4 minutes or until browned. Drain on absorbent paper.

Serve with Tomato Gravy or other tomato sauce. Makes 6 servings—2 pies per portion.

Beef Filling

Brown 1 1/4 pounds ground lean beef and 1-3 cup each chopped onion and green pepper in 2 tablespoons margarine.

Mix with 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder and 1/2 cup tomato sauce (from 8-ounce can). Cover and simmer 10 minutes; cool.

Tomato Gravy

Melt 3 tablespoons margarine in a saucepan over low heat; stir in 3 tablespoons flour. Add 1/2 cup tomato sauce (from 8-ounce can), 1 cup canned tomatoes and juice, 1/2 cup water and 1 teaspoon salt.

Cook and stir constantly until thickened. Add a bay leaf and simmer 5 to 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove bay leaf.

Jelly Roll Style Cube Steak

GAYNOR MADDOX

We tried this recipe for cube steak "jelly roll" style with Blue Lake green beans last night. A success! We selected the Blue Lake beans, grown in the Pacific Northwest because we think they are an outstanding type of bean for canning, both in tenderness and shape.

Cube Steak Bundles (Makes 4 servings)

4 cube steaks, 1 (1 pound, 1 ounce) can whole Blue Lake green beans, 1 cup dry bread crumbs, 1 egg, 1/4 cup bean liquor, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon savory, 2 tablespoons oil, 1/2 pint commercial sour cream, 1-3 cup catsup, 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Purchase steaks about 4 by 6 inches (approximately 6 ounces each). Drain beans reserving 1/4 cup liquor. Combine bread crumbs, egg, bean liquor, salt, pepper, savory.

Set steaks out on board. Spread crumb mixture on steaks; arrange beans over crumbs.

Roll steaks like jelly roll; secure with a skewer or long toothpick. Heat oil in a large ovenproof skillet. Brown steaks in hot oil.

Combine sour cream, catsup and salt; pour over steaks. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 20 minutes.

Mustard Sauce Beans (Makes 4 to 5 servings)

1 (1 pound) can Blue Lake green beans, 2 teaspoons cornstarch, 1 teaspoon instant minced onion, 1/2 cup undiluted canned consommé,

1 teaspoon prepared mustard, dash dill weed, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Drain beans. Combine cornstarch, onion, consommé, mustard and dill weed and stir until smooth.

Cook, stirring, until mixture boils and is clear and thickened. Add butter and drained beans. Heat thoroughly.

Braised Celery Ribs

(Yield: 6 servings)

18 ribs of crisp tender celery 5 inches long, 3/4 cup sliced carrots, 1-3 cup sliced onion, 1/2 cup beef stock, 1/4 cup ground beef suet, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-16 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 teaspoon flour.

Select tender inside ribs from 2 stalks celery. Cut them 5 inches long, measuring from the bottom of the rib. Parboil in 1 inch boiling water 5 minutes.

Place carrots and onions in bottom of casserole over which arrange parboiled celery ribs. Heat beef stock, suet, salt and black pepper. Pour over celery.

Cover and bake in a pre-heated moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 40 minutes or until carrots are tender.

Mix butter with flour to form a roux and mix with 1/2 cup celery liquid drained from the casserole. Spoon over celery. Place under broiler 5 minutes to glaze. Serve hot as a vegetable.

Fried Pie, a Southern Speciality

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Associated Press Food Editor

Interested in regional specialties? Then you may want to put fried pies in your cooking repertoire.

We first heard of this southern dish when some friends who had been brought up in New York went to Kentucky to live. Opening a coffee shop in the country, they fully expected to serve coffee and sandwiches. But it didn't take them long to discover that fried pies had to be among the snacks offered—or coffee shop out!

What is a fried pie? Nothing but our old friend the turnover—pastry cut in rounds or squares, filled and turned over or crimped in pairs. The fillings may be sweet or savory. But the turnover is baked in the oven, and fried pies come out of the deep-fat kettle.

According to our transplanted friends, the sweet fillings for the pies must be fruit. The savory fillings might be beef, ham, chicken or turkey.

The following recipe for fried pies uses cornmeal in the pastry and ground beef in the filling. They were enjoyed for lunch at our house with a crisp accompaniment of carrot and celery sticks and sweet pickles. They're on the rich side, so for dessert we found fresh fruit refreshing.

Savory Fried Pies
2 cups sifted flour, 1/4 cups enriched cornmeal, 2 tablespoons sugar, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1 1/4 teaspoons salt, 1-3 cup shortening, 1 egg, 2-3 cup milk, Beef Filling, Tomato Gravy.

Succulent Duck, a La Fresno

Ever eat a transcontinental roast duck? Time you enjoyed one. This recipe combines duck from Long Island, raisins from Fresno, Calif., and cider from the pungent orchards of New Jersey—or any other apple producing state.

Duck A La Fresno (Serves 2 to 3)

1 duck (4 to 5 pounds) 2 tablespoons margarine, ½ cup chopped celery, ½ cup raisins, ½ teaspoon salt, 4 tart apples; peeled, cored and quartered, 1½ cups cider (about) 1½ tablespoons flour, ½ cup golden raisins, ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind.

Clean duck. Make stuffing as follows: melt margarine, add celery and cook until it is soft. Add raisins, salt and apples.

Stuff duck, skewer vent and truss for roasting. Brush with margarine and bake on rack in roasting pan in a moderately hot oven (425 degrees F.) about 20 minutes or until breast begins to brown; turn and roast until back is brown.

Place again on its back, add ½ cup cider to pan and reduce heat to 375 degrees F.

Continue cooking for 1½ hours or until done when tested with a kitchen fork, basting frequently with liquid in pan and adding more cider as it cooks down. When done, remove duck to serving platter.

Pour liquid from pan into pint measuring cup, skim off 2 tablespoons fat and return to roasting pan.

Skim off and discard remaining fat from measure and add enough cider to make 1½ cups of liquid. Reheat fat in pan, add flour and cook until it is brown.

Add liquid and cook until it thickens, stirring in all the brown clinging to pan. Add golden raisins and lemon rind. Season to taste with salt and white pepper.

Oven Potatoes

4 medium-sized potatoes (about 1½ pounds), 2 tablespoons water, 1 tablespoon butter, paprika.

Pare potatoes and cut in half crosswise; place close together (but do not overlap) in a baking pan into which they just fit. Add water to bottom of pan. Cover tightly with pan lid or foil.

Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 30 minutes. Remove cover. Spread potatoes with soft butter; sprinkle with paprika.

Continue baking, uncovered, 15 minutes or until soft through. Makes 4 servings.

Heat oil in skillet over moderate heat. Add onion and frankfurters cut into 6 pieces each; sprinkle with kitchen bouquet. Cook, stirring frequently, until onions are transparent.

Add water, tomato vegetable soup, basil and catsup. Bring to a boil and cook for 10 minutes. Remove from heat and add rice.

Cover and let stand in a warm place for 5 minutes and serve.

Vinaigrette Sauce

(Yield: About ½ cup)

Mix 1-3 French dressing (611 and vinegar or fresh lemon juice type), 2 teaspoons finely chopped parsley, 2 teaspoons chopped green pepper, 1 teaspoon chopped onion or chives, and 1 teaspoon chopped cucumber pickle or pickle relish. Beat well with a hand or electric beater.

cherry rolls add a "special occasion" touch to any dining event, especially that fancy breakfast for guests. They can be served individually, or heaped in a basket (as shown) to form a conversation piece for your table. They're attractive, tasty and easy to make.

1 No. 303 (1 lb.) can water pack red cherries, ½ cup sugar, 3 tablespoons cornstarch, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon almond flavoring, 1 package hot roll mix, 3 tablespoons soft butter, 1 cup sifted confectioner's sugar, 2 tablespoons cream.

Combine the cherries, sugar, cornstarch and salt. Cook until the mixture is thick and clear, stirring constantly. Add the almond flavoring. Cool.

Prepare the hot roll mix according to package directions for rich dough. When the dough is ready for shaping, roll it to a 12x8-inch rectangle. Dot with a tablespoon of the butter, fold the dough. Repeat twice.

Roll to about ¼-inch thickness. Cut into 2-inch rounds. Place on greased baking sheets. Let rise in a warm place until light, about 30 minutes.

Press an indentation in center of each roll. Fill with the cherry filling. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 15 to 18 minutes.

Make icing by combining con-fectioners' sugar and cream; drizzle over baked rolls.

Yield: 24 rolls. Omit sugar if sweetened red cherries are used.

Chicken Korma Is Spiced Dish

GAYNOR MADDOX

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

East Indian dishes are subtly spiced, inevitably, as India is the home of true spices.

One dish, new to Americans, was introduced at the American Spice Trade Association dinner at New York's Hotel Astor. It is called Chicken Korma, and a blend of the following spices give it an exotic delicacy — cloves, cardamom seed, whole black pepper, cinnamon, bay leaves, turmeric, coriander seed, ginger, red pepper, garlic and onion. Those savors are mingled in a rich glaze which is spicy but not "hot."

Rice Pilau is the accompaniment to Chicken Korma. Cardamom seeds, whole cloves, stick cinnamon, caraway seeds and bay leaf season a good lamb broth in which the rice is cooked, the whole then enriched with lamb morsels and mushrooms.

Chicken Korma (Yield: 8 servings)

3 pounds breast and legs of chicken, ½ cup yogurt, 2½ teaspoons salt, ¾ cup onion flakes, ½ cup water, ½ cup butter or margarine or peanut oil, 6 whole cloves, 4 whole cardamom, 6 whole black peppers, 1 stick cinnamon, 2 inches long, 2 bay leaves, 1 teaspoon turmeric, 1 tablespoon ground coriander, 1 teaspoon ground cumin seed, ½ teaspoon ground ginger, ½ teaspoon ground red pepper, ¾ teaspoon garlic powder, ½ cup tomato puree.

Wash chicken. Mix yogurt and salt with chicken and let marinate 1 hour. Combine onion flakes and ½ cup water. Let stand until softened, 6 to 8 minutes or until all water is absorbed. Melt butter or margarine slowly over low heat. Skim off foam and discard. Add onions and cook 15 minutes or until well browned.

The cloves, cardamom and black peppers in a cheese cloth bag and add along with cinnamon, bay leaves and turmeric. Stir and cook 5 minutes. Add

Grapefruit Nog

Eggs, unsweetened grapefruit juice, salt, honey, nutmeg.

For each serving beat an egg white until stiff; without washing beater, beat egg yolk until thick; gradually beat in 1 cup grapefruit juice, a dash of salt and 2 teaspoons honey.

Combine with stiffly beaten egg white by beating gently together. Serve in a tall glass topped with a sprinkle of nutmeg.

A Word From ...

THERON'S OLD COUNTRY STORE

Columbiana-Lisbon Road

Where shopping is always an adventure — never a chore. Young folks marvel at the oddities, the old folks remince over them. These were the words of one of our customers the other day . . . I thought they sounded pretty good.

Spread-a-burger, New Sandwich Idea

Sandwiches have gained momentum in menu planning.

A terrific new idea for this popular food favorite is spread-a-burgers. They're tempting open face quickies, sizzling good for chillier days or nights. Easy-do's, spread-a-burgers combine ground beef, chicken, eggs, or tuna, with a canned condensed soup, and seasonings. This tasty mixture is spread on toasted frankfurter or hamburger buns and broiled. It's an economical delight.

1 1/2 pounds ground beef, 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed tomato soup, 1-3 cup finely chopped onion, 1 can (2 ounces) chopped mushrooms, drained, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon leaf oregano, crushed, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, Dash garlic powder, 6 frankfurter buns, split and toasted.

Thoroughly mix beef, soup, onion, mushrooms, and seasonings.

Spread mixture evenly over bun halves; cover edges completely. Broil about 4 inches from heat for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 6 open-face sandwiches.

NOTE: If desired, sprinkle burgers with 1/2 cup shredded mild process cheese during the last 5 minutes of broiling.

Yams, Steak In a Pie

A new idea for cold night meals—a "yamburger" pie. The "crust" is made of ground beef and the filling of mashed Louisiana yams. You'll enjoy it.

Yamburger Pie
Makes 4 to 6 servings

1 pound ground beef chuck, 1 egg, beaten, 1 medium-sized onion, chopped, 1-3 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 1/2 cups mashed cooked Louisiana yams, 1/4 teaspoon seasoned salt, 1/4 teaspoon allspice, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese.

Combine beef, egg, onion, green pepper, bread crumbs, salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper; mix well. Press meat mixture on bottom and sides of 9-inch pie plate. Combine yams, seasoned salt, allspice, 1/4 teaspoon pepper and 1 tablespoon cheese; mix well.

Arrange yam mixture over meat mixture. Top with remaining 1 tablespoon cheese. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) 50 minutes.

Louisiana Yams With Peas
(Makes 6 servings)

2 cans (1 pound each) Louisiana yams, or 6 medium-sized yams, 1 package (10 ounces) frozen peas, salt and pepper to taste, 2 tablespoons chopped chives, 1 cup sour cream.

Cook undrained canned yams over low heat 10 minutes; drain. If using fresh yams, cook yams, covered, in boiling salted water 30 to 35 minutes, or until tender; drain and peel.

Cook peas as directed on package. Drain if necessary. Combine yams, peas, salt and pepper, chives and sour cream; mix well.

Cook over low heat, stirring frequently, to serving temperature.

New Chef's Salad

4 cups torn pieces romaine or other salad greens, 1/2 cup thinly sliced pared cucumber, 1 large tomato (peeled and seeded and diced), 1 cup thin strips baked ham, 1/4 cup thin strips cheddar cheese, 1/4 cup minced parsley, 3 tablespoons olive oil, 2 tablespoons garlic-flavored wine vinegar, seasoned salt and pepper, 1 to 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese.

Just before serving toss all the ingredients together in a large salad bowl, adding seasoned salt and freshly-ground pepper to taste. (If chive salt is available, use it. If not, minced fresh chives or green onion may be added.) Makes 4 servings.

Two Hearts That Eat as One

Play cupid in the kitchen. Join two heart-shaped cakes together and frost with loving care for Valentine's Day. Heart-shaped cakes are simple to bake in special pans of aluminum foil. Two pans, in Valentine red, come packaged together.

To make double cake: mix, bake in layers and cool, one white and one chocolate, re-using the foil pans for the second baking. Join the like layers with frosting.

To unite these hearts, cut a curved segment from the roundest part of one heart, so that the same part of the other heart (but on the opposite side) will slide into it. Frost the cakes completely with feathery strokes, then outline each heart shape with a frill of frosting in a contrasting color.

Here's another idea for a Valentine's Day luncheon: delicately pink shrimp Creole on white rice: Shrimp Creole (Makes 4 servings)

4 tablespoons sweet (unsalted) margarine, 2 medium onions, sliced, 1 green pepper, sliced, 2 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon oregano, 1 No. 2 can solid pack tomatoes, 1 small can tomato sauce, 1 cup raw rice, 1 pound raw shrimp, fresh or frozen or 8-ounce peeled and deveined shrimp, uncooked.

Heat margarine in frying pan. Add onion and pepper rings and cook until tender. Sprinkle flour in pan, stirring until it is blended in.

Add salt, pepper, oregano, tomatoes and tomato sauce. Cook over very low heat while you prepare rice and shrimp.

Cook rice in boiling salted water until tender. While rice is cooking, clean and cook shrimp by boiling 2 to 5 minutes.

Fluffy Spinach Omelet

(Yield: 4 servings)

Beat 4 egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Beat 4 egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add 1/2 teaspoon onion salt, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1/4 cup milk, and 1 cup finely chopped uncooked spinach (use only the leaves of fresh spinach and chop very fine); carefully fold into beaten egg whites.

Turn into a buttered, hot 9-inch skillet or omelet pan. Cook over very low heat until omelet puffs up and is browned on bottom, about 10 minutes. (Test by raising edge of omelet with spatula.) Place in slow oven (325 degrees F.) until top springs back when pressed with finger, 8 to 10 minutes.

With a spatula crease down across the center of omelet and fold over. Slip onto platter. Garnish with parsley and crisp bacon.

Serve for breakfast, lunch or supper. If desired, top with cheese sauce to which fresh lemon juice, to taste, has been added, if served as luncheon or supper dish. This omelet, served with cheese sauce and crisp bacon or cold boiled ham, makes a pleasant main course for dinner.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Both regular white and wild rice triple in bulk after they are cooked. You can pep up a tomato sauce for fish or omelet by adding a little curry powder; a suspicion of thyme won't hurt either.

The newest refrigerators have a compartment for storing eggs because eggs stay freshest when they are covered.

You need a teaspoon of salt for each quart of water when you are boiling vegetables.

Fresh flavor: Make a gelatin mold of grapefruit juice and add a little mint.

Dried chervil seems to lose its flavor more rapidly than some other herbs, so when you have a jar of chervil on your kitchen shelf use it!

Reserve enough shrimp to garnish 4 servings; chop remaining shrimp. Drain cooked rice and mold into balls with an ice cream scoop, measuring cup or tea cup. Unmound onto platter or cop plate. Keep hot in warm oven.

Just before serving, add chopped shrimp to sauce, and spoon around mounds of rice. Garnish with whole shrimp.
